Disciplinary Action	Who has authority?	Primarily DSPS (“department”) or DA	Primarily SLIEB
	License Penalties	DSPS can conduct an investigation or hearing about rules relating to the license. They could reprimand a licensee by denying, limiting, suspending, or revoking a license.	SLIEB can ask the DSPS Division of Legal Services and Compliance (DLSC) to perform an independent investigation and hearing. SLIEB makes determination whether to deny, limit, suspend, or revoke license. Can also impose forfeitures up to $1,000.
	Criminal Fines/Penalties	Charges brought by District Attorney (DA) Only: No more than $200 fine or imprisoned for not more than 6 months or both	Charges brought by Board, DSPS, or District Attorney/State: Unlicensed Practice: No more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than 1 year or both for each occurrence
	Unlicensed Practice of Interpreting	Department can send a “cease and desist” letter	SLIEB can authorize an injunction (order to stop interpreting) SLIEB, Attorney General, or District Attorney can bring action against an individual if continually ignores the Board’s request to stop.
MOU Committee		(does not exist)	Goal of MOU Committee: Negotiate, execute, and periodically review a memorandum of understanding between the SLIEB and the Department of Public Instruction regarding DPI's licensure of educational sign language interpreters.

		*Waiver to requirement depending on when license holder obtains initial license or extenuating circumstances appealed to the SLIEB.
Temporary Exemptions	The council may grant a temporary exemption to an individual to provide interpretation services for a period not to exceed 20 days, if the individual is certified by the Registry of interpreters for the Deaf, Inc. or its successor, or the National Association of the Deaf or its successor. The council may not grant an individual more than 2 temporary exemptions per year.	The board can approve up to 21 working days per year per individual. Temporary exemption request letters must be submitted in writing in advance of work days and include dates the individual will be performing sign language interpretation services, reasons why the individual cannot obtain the full license, and the individual's professional credentials. Additionally, the turnaround time for approval should be no more than 10 business days. This will help individuals applying understand the timeline for last minute requests. Last minute requests can still be applied for. DSPS can approve requests by following parameters set by the Board. If anything ends up outside of those parameters, it is sent to the Board for review. Board does not need to meet to approve temporary exemptions and could possibly appoint a board liaison for approving temporary exemptions.
